BOARD OF REVENUE, L.P., FORT WILLIAM, the 27th December 1881.

CUSTOM HOUSE NOTICES.

TO MERCHANTS, SHIPS' AGENTS, IMPORTERS AND EXPORTERS OF GOODS

THE Indian Stamp Act, I of 1879, requires that bills of lading should bear a stamp of four annas, and if drawn in parts, that each bill of the set should bear the proper stamp. Under a ruling of the Board of Revenue, this provision of the law is applicable to all bills of lading used in this country, whether executed in or out of British India, and whether previously stamped in accordance with the stamp law of any place out of British India or not, subject to the exemption mentioned in Article 7, Schedule II of Act I of 1879.

2. Bills of lading executed out of British India, before presentation at the Custom House, must be taken to the Collector of Calcutta, to have the requisite stamp impressed upon them under section 17 of the Stamp Act.

3. Bills of lading executed in British India may be prepared on impressed sheets or stamped paper, which can be procured at the office of the Collector of Calcutta, or being otherwise prepared, may be taken to the Collector to have an impressed label affixed to them. The latter is the usual practice.

4. From the bills of lading presented at the Custom-house, it appears that the requirements of the stamp law are frequently disregarded. It is therefore my duty to point out that unstamped or insufficiently stamped bills of lading are liable to be impounded under section 33 of the Stamp Act. I intend, however, for the present to give the holder of a bill of lading not duly stamped, an opportunity of having the proper stamp impressed upon it by the Collector of Calcutta, instead of proceeding to the extreme measure of impounding the document; but should this prove ineffectual to secure compliance with the law it will be necessary to deal with infringements as the law directs.
